The Federal Republic of Somalia welcomes, once again, the recommendations made by Member States and would like to reaffirm its sustained commitment to the protection and promotion of the human rights. Somalia has carefully considered the remaining recommendations in consultation with relevant stakeholders and respectfully submits the following responses to the Human Rights Council.

Recommendations	Somali Government positions	Explanatory notes
1.	Noted	Somalia aims to prioritise which international instruments to become party to and which instruments not to become party to due to capacity constraints and/or incompatibility with current policies.
2.	Noted	See No. 1.
3.	Noted	As explained by Somalia during the UPR session on 22 January 2016 abolishing the death penalty is not attainable in the current situation of Somalia as the people are not ready to accept this. Somalia will initiate community dialogue on the position of the death penalty in our society.
4.	Noted	See No. 1.
5.	Noted	See No. 3.
6.	Noted	See No. 3.
7.	Noted	See No. 1. Somalia is in the process of to sign CEDAW. Noting this recommendation as it is too broadly formulated.

105. Noted

This recommendation mostly enjoys support from Somalia. However, Somalia's security situation requires the Government to carefully balance human rights and the country's security interest. Inciting violence against the Government and hatred amongst communities are acts that Somalia cannot accept and will take serious measures against.
